Primary Examiner
Art Unit: 3624

Art Unit: 3624

1. Applicant and the assignee of this application are required under 37 CFR 1.105 to provide the following information that the examiner has determined is reasonably necessary to the examination of this application.

A demonstration of the software for implementing the present invention is necessary to properly examine and treat the matter of this application. This demonstration would best if it were conducted by the inventors. Sufficient time will be allotted and the presentation can extend beyond the conventional one hour time period. The applicants are strongly encouraged to be prepared to discuss their particular contribution to the field of derivative pricing that is the subject matter of this invention. The examiner has completed his graduate degree in financial engineering and the tone and substance of the presentation should be prepared for this level. In order to make the most of the short period of time we have for this interview, the examiner requests that prior to the interview that the applicant point the most relevant sections of the prior art.

Respectfully

By, _____

Richard Weisberger
